BRUNCH TO GO

www.parkhotel.ch/en/brunch-to-go

Dear Members,

What a year has just passed! I'm writing this on January 1st and I'm looking at the welcome letter of the first 2020 newsletter. At the time the club was discussing what should and could be done to adapt to the changing needs of current or prospective members.

Then came Corona and all planned traditional, new or changed events were postponed by the lockdown from mid-March till May. A lot of virtual activities started, many of which continued throughout the less restrictive months in summer and early autumn, and still go on now. The event organizers became even more flexible than they had been already because the rules (and especially the number of participants allowed for events) were constantly changing. Despite this, many events still took place and the members continued to meet old friends and make new ones. Take a look at the Testimonials to see what our members have experienced this year. You'll see that we've done a lot to keep the club's main objective of providing social contact and support to its members alive and kicking, and I'm very proud of us.

Right now, we're looking for more ideas and initiatives to keep ourselves sane and connected so I encourage you to please reach out to me, other members of the ZIWC Board and your fellow members if you have ideas you want to discuss or implement, or if you need some help.

To revert to last year's first welcome letter: I think we've done a lot of good this year given the circumstances. And all of this will shape the future of the ZIWC as a club for women who want to meet, socialize and network with other women whether via virtual means or in person.

And some statistics, too: 63 new members joined in 2020, which brings us to 242 active members and many new women are expressing interest every day. You can also spread the word! As our numbers continue to go up, I look forward to reporting the results to you when I do the next annual statistic.

All the best

Dear Valued Members,

We value your time and energy and we realize how challenging scheduling has been in recent months.

So we just want to remind you that due to the changing nature of the government's regulations, events may be resumed, rescheduled, changed or even cancelled with very little notice.

So please check the ZIWC website, Facebook page or call the organizer of any event you wish to attend for the most up-to-date information before setting out.

Thank you for your patience and understanding and we can't wait to see you when circumstances allow.

Germany – Zug

As a German-born computer scientist/software engineer I came to Switzerland in 1982 for work, fell in love with the country (especially the mountains) and stayed. After I retired in 2011, I moved to Zug and joined the club in 2015. My hobbies are travelling, hiking, skiing and just about every form of 'cultural exposure' (theatre, concert, opera, movie, museum, etc.).

Hospitality: Veerle Vandionant

Born in Belgium, lived and worked in the UK (Surrey) and Spain (Barcelona). Arrived with my husband in Walchwil at the end of September 2020 after residing in Zurich since the beginning of August. I joined the Club to get to know people and became an active member of the Friday Fitness Hiking. My hobbies are sailing, hiking, running and interior design. I also love to listen and learn from people.

United States – Zug

Born in Dallas, Texas, I have lived and worked in Dallas, Phoenix, Paris, Geneva and Zug. I moved to Geneva, Switzerland in 2000, my Swiss husband's job brought our family to lovely Zug in 2013 and we love it. My professional career has had a winding path. In Geneva, I fell into a position as representative for the Girl Guides and Girl Scouts at the UN, which lead to working for the US State Department. Before that, I was the Editor of The Courier Magazine for the Geneva AIWC, wrote for travel guides and was a restaurant critic. Currently, I teach Advanced English at the Zug primary schools. I look forward to getting to know the ZIWC members. My hobbies are golf, SUP, yoga, skiing, reading, singing and going to restaurants. And if anyone is interested, I am happy to join for a winter dip in the lake.

Samiclaus Report

The traditional Samiclaus breakfast was held in the Park Hotel in the centre of Zug on the morning of the 4th of December 2020. Though we could only host half the usual number of ladies due to BAG- imposed restrictions, attendees donned their sequins and face masks to safely enjoy prosecco and a breakfast fit for a queen! The huge array of choice on offer left nobody going home hungry.

It was the first of one of these events that I have attended and it didn't disappoint. I hope you ladies enjoyed it as much as I did. The staff at the Park hotel did a superb job at making the ladies feel comfortable and safe, yet still able to enjoy the morning with their friends new and old.

The hugely popular raffle had people running out to cash machines and borrowing money from friends to purchase tickets as the list of prizes was extraordinary. One table of four ladies won five of the prizes!

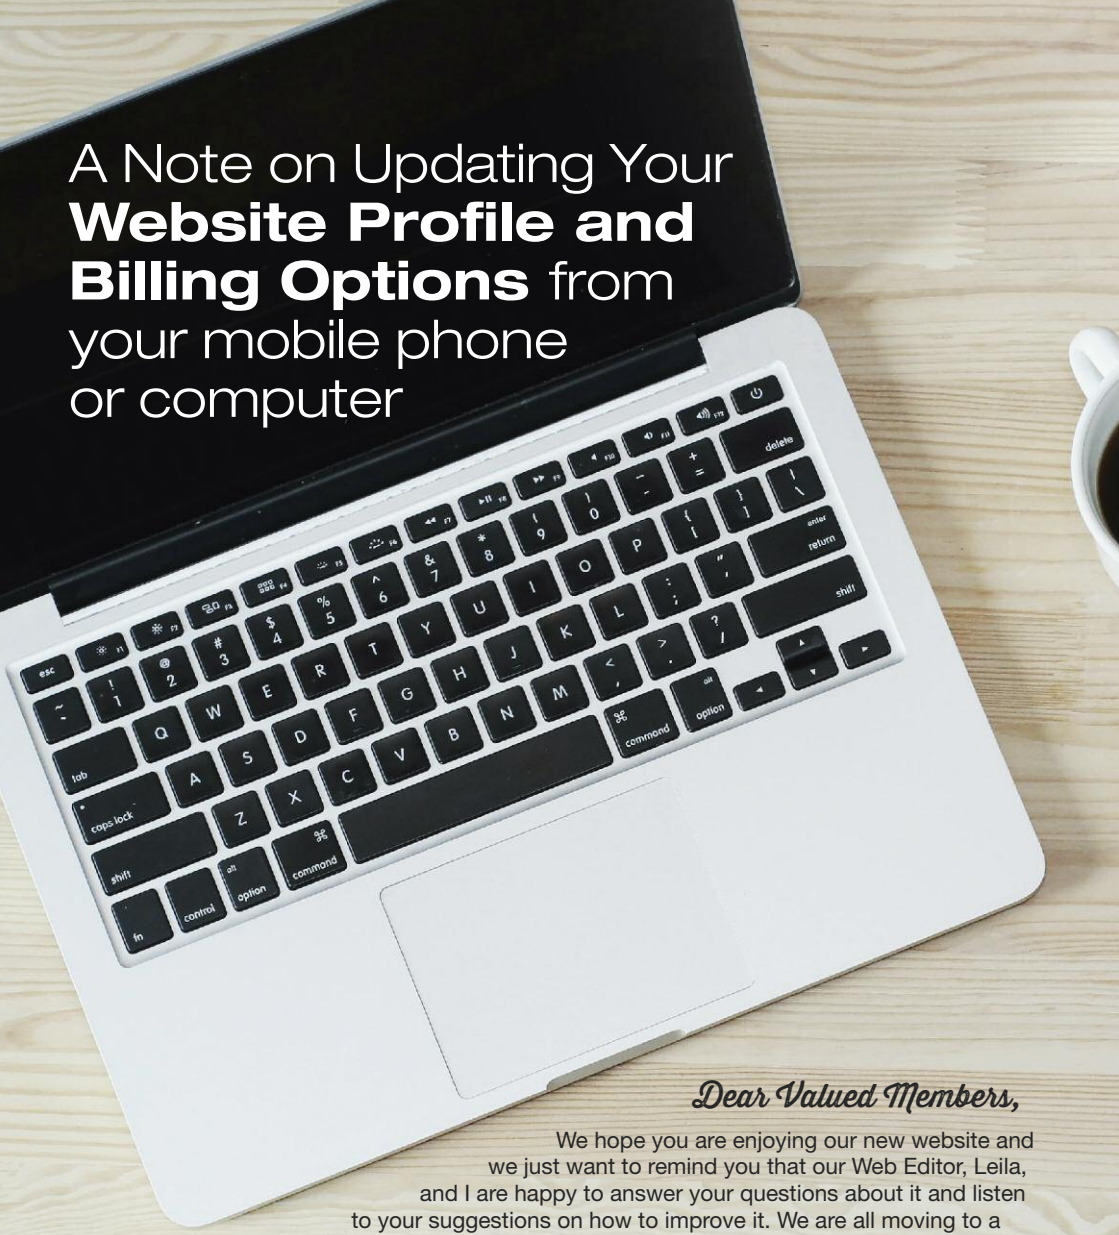

The raffle itself was brilliantly organised by Saakje Daalhuijsen-Beijnen, a long-standing member of the club. It was a big success, and we raised a tremendous total of Chf 710.50 for our chosen charity of 2020, the FRW International Dialogue association. The abbreviation FRW stands for peace, respect and dignity, and the FRW International Dialogue Association has been dedicated to supporting the integration of refugees and expats across Canton Zug for more than seven years.

Even though the club is limited in what we can offer currently, we still have a wide array of activities suitable to all ages and interests and we look forward to when we can get back to a full schedule in the coming months.

Wishing you and your families a very happy and healthy new year!

A Note on Updating Your Website Profile and Billing Options from your mobile phone or computer

Dear Valued Members,

We hope you are enjoying our new website and we just want to remind you that our Web Editor, Leila, and I are happy to answer your questions about it and listen to your suggestions on how to improve it. We are all moving to a more digital era and we are trying to make our lives easier.

We would like to highlight the "My Membership" section of the website and focus on two main topics: The "About" and "Profile" tabs and the Payments options found at the bottom of the "About" tab.

In the "About" and "Profile" tabs, please tell us more about yourself! The information you include here will help the board to develop activities that better match our members' interests and help you find other members who share your same passions (you can easily find a tennis partner or someone else crazy for opera!)

As for Payments, we've upgraded and simplified your options, so scroll to the bottom of the "About" tab and click on "Renew, upgrade or update billing." There you can fill in your credit/debit card details and this will allow you to pay for your membership/renewal and events directly from the website. This is a totally safe and private way to pay. And it means you can take care of this safely from your mobile phone, no more stress and no more queue at the post office.

And don't worry, if you end up changing your mind and you're still within the event deadline, you can get a full refund on the card you've entered in a short time. If you're worried about security, we're using one of the safer payment methods used worldwide and no one in the club will see any of your details.

You'll soon be receiving an email reminding you that your membership fee of CHF 100.00 is due on April 1st. In case you are planning to be part of our Club in 2021/2022, filling out the About, Profile, and Payment sections of the "My Membership" section will be the best way to make your life easier.

Best Regards,
Cristina
ZIWC President

What did I get for my Club Fee in 2020?

As you know, the ZIWC charges CHF 100 for one year of membership and though 2020 was challenging, the club still provided good returns for this investment. The following is a short list of benefits available to club members in 2020:

Despite the changing government regulations, we hosted two excellent parties: The Back Together Party and the Samiclaus Brunch. Members safely enjoyed each other's company, had delicious food and drinks, and even returned home with gifts. At these two events, the club sponsored 66% of what would otherwise have been paid by members.

The club also provided special group ticket prices and benefits from events and vendors in the community, like the Art Zurich Fee tickets and the free pancake plate for Sunday Brunch attendees.

Members also still had access to 21 diverse Interest groups, including 3 Language-focused groups. In the current market we'd pay about CHF 10 per hour (or possibly more) to learn a language or receive professional coaching. Given that rate, the following breakdown of the hours devoted to each type of activity for our members in a club year is quite substantial. And even if members only take advantage of some of these options, it more than covers the yearly fee.

Activity	Hours
Escapes	5
Language Interest Groups	57
Learning Interest Groups	39
Outing-Focused Interest Groups	15
Professional Interest Groups	14
Sports-Focused Interest Groups	83
Stammtisch	16
Total	229

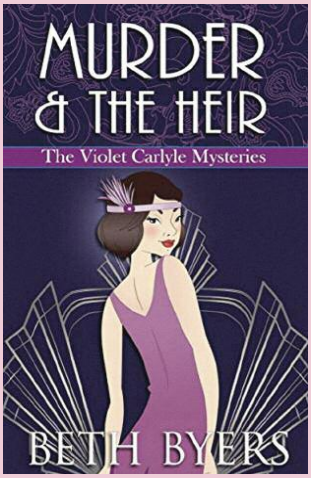

These are all valuable opportunities for our members and count for a lot and that doesn't even include the most important and more intangible benefits of the networking, connection, and friendship offered by the club. All these things and more will continue on into 2021 and our members will continue to connect, bolster and comfort each other as well as provide that invaluable sense of community we are known for. So, don't forget to renew your membership on April 1st and keep spreading the word about our club and all that it offers!

2020 Testimonials

Though 2020 has been a challenging year, the Zug International Women's Club has done its best to provide the friendship, support, and sense of community for which we are known. Read the 2020 experiences of two of our members to see how that played out in their lives.

During the pandemic I stayed very active with ZIWC. Precautions were always taken, and a good time seemed to be had by all.

In June I went to a Sicilian Degustation organized by Cristina in Horgen, which awakened my taste buds to new experiences and led me to a walk along lake Zürich. Later in the month I attended dinner at the Hafen Restaurant in Zug which was jovial, and the food was good. We even saw a full double rainbow over the old town!

In August I was at the Summer Party on the Park Hotel terrace and we were lucky to have sunny weather. At the Apéro in the vineyard barn in Oberwil, we got a fascinating history of Zug, and exquisite wines and snacks.

In September I attended the wonderful host Phuong Lecocq's coffee morning in the Park Tower which was an experience in itself! I also had an educational experience at the Men's Club Climate College evening at the City Garden Hotel in Zug. I thoroughly enjoyed the collection at The Am Römerholz museum in Winterthur as well as its wonderful garden where we had lunch in the sun.

In October I started the regular Monday afternoon walks with a lovely bunch of ladies that have become friends, as well as getting much needed exercise! I also went to the Aeschbach chocolate factory and can guarantee that the chocolate is exquisite!

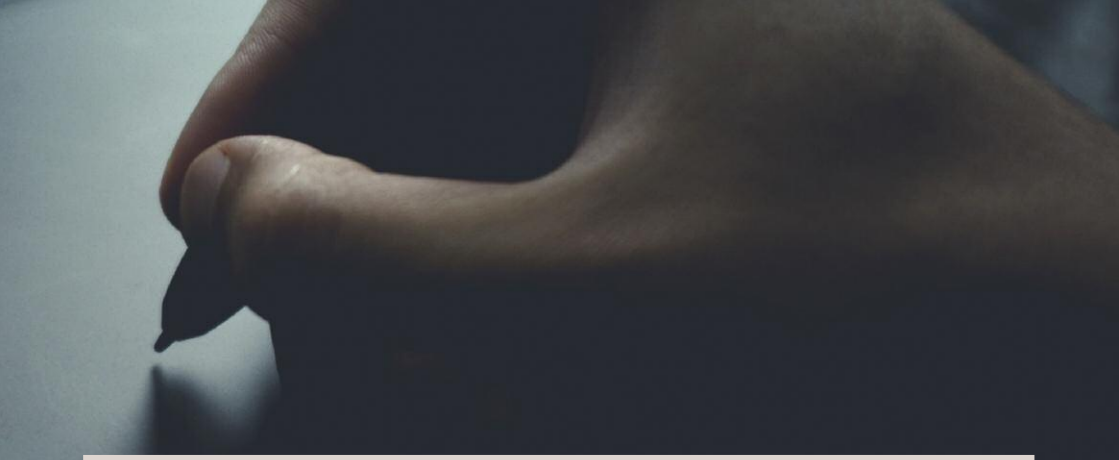

In November I was at the cozy coffee morning in Cham for a good chat. At Schäfli's Salmon House in Neuheim, I was fascinated by the history of Salmon fishing and loved tasting the different types of fish (as one of a table of four) in the restaurant.

In December I really enjoyed the Sami Claus breakfast at the Park Hotel, where many of us got together and shared the wonderful brunch, and I finally felt the beginning of the Christmas Season.

As you can see, I benefit greatly socially and physically from our Women's Club. Thank you to all members for being a part of the club, and a special thank you to the board members for all the hard work you put into organizing events, especially in 2020.

Stay safe, and hope to see you all in 2021.

Kate Hönigsberg

2020 - The Year I Finally Began to Connect…

Despite a year that has been so difficult for so many people worldwide, I am thankful every day that I arrived back in Walchwil, from Dublin, on March 6 2020 - and have been here ever since… It's been hilarious really - a journey without going anywhere: the longest time I have spent under one roof since I was at school (an awfully long time ago!), the longest time I have spent in Zug - despite having been here at least monthly for a few days for more than thirty years, and by a wide margin the longest time I've spent in Switzerland ever! And that's despite having had a home in Walchwil for more than twenty years.

This time has provided me with the impetus and opportunity to get more involved with ZIWC, having joined in early 2018. For various reasons, including spending a lot of time in Ireland, I had only managed a few lunches before 2020, and always enjoyed them (thank you Vivi). Once the reality dawned that I was unlikely to be able to do any of the things we had planned for this year, another reality dawned too - I had no friends or contacts of my own here in Zug. ZIWC to the rescue…

While I have not managed as many events as others, every engagement has been a joy: lunches at the Rössli and Don's Diner, dinner at Puccini, the Sami-Claus breakfast, Emilia's last Wednesday coffee before returning to Milan… I've even gone to events that turned out to be cancelled due to restrictions, except I didn't know because I hadn't joined the Facebook group! I went to Schwyz anyway on a glorious day in late October, having never been there before. When lunch at the Rathauskeller was cancelled, Diane (Price) and I went anyway. Walchwil coffees (the few that have been possible) mean that I now know a few people nearby - and with the venue moving to the Aesch Restaurant (www.restaurant-aesch.ch), I plan for this to be a regular fixture in my diary.

Everyone I've met through ZIWC is warm, open and often very inspiring. Need some advice, help or a recommendation? Someone will know the answer or know someone else who does (Helena is often the Oracle!). During 2020, the Club has provided an amazing range of activities and possibilities for growth and development (I think Cristina said that more than 350 hours of language class have been provided!) - thank you to all involved who've made it possible, and especially those who worked so hard for the big events that couldn't happen.

Hopefully we'll be able to get together again soon. Here's to 2021!

Book Review:

The Expert Guide to your life in Switzerland

ed. Diccon Bewes, Bergli Books
ISBN 978-3-03869-076-4, 2020.

Thinking of relocating to Switzerland? Want to find out more about your adopted country, save money, get insider tips on all aspects of Swiss life, become a Swiss citizen? This is the book for you!

The Expert Guide to your life in Switzerland, edited by well-known Swiss-watcher Diccon Bewes, contains 18 chapters covering all aspects of life in Switzerland, both for the new arrival and the seasoned resident, written by experts in their field. Articles cover arrival, housing, work, history, health, money, laws, leisure time, even LBGTQ life and lots more. I found particularly useful the sections on how to make friends and citizenship for wannabes.

The guide is amazingly comprehensive yet attractively laid-out, user-friendly (index, cross-referencing, glossary in three languages) but also humorous. Pitfalls, hazards (laundry room) and how to save money (don't declare your religion if you want to avoid paying church tax) and similar advice are good to know in advance of arrival. Even if you've been here for years, you'll learn a lot of useful advice.

Bergli Books was founded by a former member of the ZIWC, Dianne Dicks, and Bergli have kindly offered our readers a 10% discount (code ZIWC10) • https://www.bergli.ch/

Escapes

Due to the ever-evolving government restrictions and decisions regarding gatherings, we on the Escape team and the entire ZIWC Board are trying hard to find outings that are still available at this time. This has, however, been quite challenging. We have been told to wait until either January 22nd or for further instructions from the government before booking anything.

In the meantime, we have put together a list of potential Escapes that we hope to arrange if possible.

Please check the ZIWC's website or Facebook page for the most up to date information or contact Amy Egger at escape@ziwc.ch or 076 761 91 35 with any questions.

Potential Escapes:

A guided Tour at the REGA Headquarters in Zurich.

The guided tour lasts around 2 hours and includes a presentation on their operations, a visit to the hangar, and a REGA film.

Guided tour of the Glasi Factory in Hergiswil.

We would start the tour in the “Shaped By Fire” museum and continue on to watch the glassblowers at work. At the moment, the “blow your own glass ball” workshop is closed, but we are hoping this will open again soon.

A Winter Sled ride in Raten.

We would be treated to a panoramic tour in the winter wonderland around Raten in a horse-drawn sled.

Due to the latest Federal Government decisions, Contact coffees, Stammtisch and Area Coffee are suspended until further notice. Please consult the online club calendar for the latest updates or call Veerle at 077 505 12 13.

Hospitality

Veerle Vandionant, who took over from Emilia Mini, is eager to start welcoming and entertaining you as the ad interim Hospitality Chairwoman.

Gardening Interest Group

Grow your own!!

Learn how to grow your own vegetables in an easy way on your balcony or terrace. You learn all about how to plan, sow, grow and harvest.

Émely calls herself a foodie by birth growing up in her mom's kitchen and garden. Her two biggest passions are cooking and gardening, as in growing her own herbs and vegetables. Since her recovery from cancer she dedicated her terrace to growing her own vegetables and loves to share her passion, knowledge, and expertise with you. You do not need "green fingers" because this group is for everybody passionate about food, vegetables, and herbs from beginner to seasoned gardener.

The vegetables gardening group still has spots for vegetable loving ladies who'd like to (start) growing them themselves on their balcony, terrace or in the garden. For ladies who don't have a garden and don't have the opportunity to garden on their balcony or terrace, can still opt-in for the allotment in Hünenberg. However, we will only decide on getting that land if we have enough ladies willing to really commit to doing the work. There is no big financial involvement needed as we can get the plot for free.

Meeting details: Tuesday afternoon 14.00 – 16.00 in Émely's garden in Baar.

Upcoming Meeting Dates: 16th of February and 16th of March

Address: Früebergstrasse 20, Baar

Contact details: Émely Steegstra-Hendrix, emelyziwc@gmail.com, 077 490 73 74

Registration please per e-mail or WhatsApp, stating which group they want to attend

Cooking Group

Diane Price, the Interest Group Leader of the new Cooking group is inviting you to join and share your experiences with her!

"Whilst in Singapore I was part of a cooking group which I really enjoyed. I found it fascinating to learn and try recipes from the other group members' home countries and then share the delicious food with them. You can prepare anything from a main course, baking item or even a 3-course meal! The beauty of these groups is the flexibility - cook whatever you want. No pressure on anybody or expectations - even a salad is fine. You really do not need to be a great cook to host a session - I am certainly not! The idea is to get new recipe ideas and meet up with people to share the food. If you get different nationalities in a group, it is nice if they prepare something from their own countries. I am really enthusiastic in leading a similar group here in Zug."

The group meets on a Thursday once a month and in due course we could even have meetings every 2nd week or even have additional evening or weekend sessions. We are aiming for a group of 6 members to keep things manageable.

If you will be hosting the group, you will normally arrange to meet at around 10 am for a coffee before the session starts. The host will have planned what you are going to cook and will provide copies of the recipe(s) to the group members.

Contact details: Diane Price, pricefamily1@aol.com, 079 192 75 35
Please register in the group by e-mail or WhatsApp

Accountability Tuesdays Group

Do you work alone in your business or at home and would like the support of virtual colleagues to keep you focused? Then join our Accountability Tuesdays Group. At the beginning of the session everyone shares the tasks that they will work on. We work in 25-minute sprints with a 5-minute check-in and stretch break at the end of each sprint. This group is suitable for members who seek the accountability that comes from committing to a fixed time to get their work of preference done in a group setting. Members who work in an office environment on solitary tasks are also welcomed to join. Members who want to dedicate time to get concentration-intensive work done. This can be work for their business/job, coursework, or personal work such as paying bills, doing taxes, etc. It is not suitable for women who are doing housework, gardening, or similar work.

Meeting Details: We meet twice a month on the 2nd & 4th Tuesdays of the month. We start at 9:15 and continue for 2 hours. The time can be adjusted accordingly, and members may join and leave as they wish.

The dates for February are Tuesday the 9th and 23rd.
The dates for March are Tuesday the 9th and 23rd.
Always check for the assigned dates on the Club website Calendar.

Location: A Zoom Repeating link is uploaded and advertised on the Club website and Facebook page.

Escape with Your Imagination: A Visit to Eugene, Oregon

by Mical Lewis

The state of Oregon lies just to the North of California and is an underappreciated destination on the West Coast of the United States. It's a big state and has a lot to explore, but one of the nicest places to be is, in my opinion, my hometown of Eugene, Oregon. Located at the southern end of the Willamette Valley, this quiet, funky city has just about everything a traveler could want: a vibrant city culture, green and peaceful parks, calming forests to hike in and rivers to admire, not to mention plenty of delicious things to eat and drink. I suggest visiting between late May and Early October for the best weather. Consider the following for your visit:

Things to Do:

Tour the University of Oregon: This is where I earned both of my degrees and it has lovely grounds, an interesting history and great architecture.

Visit the Willamette Valley Wineries and taste Oregon Pinot Noirs: There are a TON of lovely wineries in the countryside around Eugene, so definitely rent a car and spend at least one day visiting them for tastings. My personal favorites are: Sweet Cheeks (You can bring your own picnic!), Sarver (incredible views) and Sylvan Ridge (excellent gewürztraminer).

Visit the Eugene Saturday Market: This funky, weekly market captures the hippie-flower-child vibe of Eugene. Booths full of ceramics, clothing, toys, candles, jewelry, decorations and all manner of interesting arts and crafts pack one of the city's central squares each Saturday and make an excellent morning of shopping and people watching. The food court is also especially good (Rita's Burritos is the best) and the farmer's market is where to go for gorgeous local produce, flowers, and plants.

Visit Alton Baker Park and Walk along the Willamette River: There's an eight-kilometer (round trip) walking loop around the central section of the river that runs through town. It's shady, quiet, and offers access to one of the shopping malls on one end, a park full of ducks and the local rose garden. Makes for good and refreshing exercise.

Hike Spencer's Butte: a modestly-high hill on the southwestern part of town, it provides a challenging, but not impossible, hike up and rewards you with a spectacular view of the surrounding countryside.

Things to Eat/Drink:

RESTAURANTS:

McMinnamen's North Bank Restaurant: Part of a Pacific-Northwest chain of funky breweries, hotels, and restaurants, this is the ideal place to enjoy a burger and beer while watching the sunset over the river.

Isakaya Meiji Company: A restaurant designed after a Japanese whiskey bar, this place has delectable Japanese-style small plates and an impressive cocktail menu.

Hole-In-The-Wall BBQ: a very casual but very tasty BBQ joint in West Eugene is the perfect place to indulge in this saucy American specialty. The ribs here are particularly good.

Studio One Café: My favorite breakfast/brunch spot. This Hollywood-themed restaurant does classic American breakfasts and has excellent coffee.

COFFEE SHOPS

Hideaway Bakery: offers great coffee and amazing baked goods (both sweet and savory). They're open early, so good to visit when dealing with jet-lag.

Wandering Goat Coffee Company: A truly Eugene-experience, this small-scale coffee roaster offers delicious coffee and a distinctly off-beat environment.

Other Fun Stuff:

Oakshire and Ninkasi breweries for beer tastings.

Wildcraft Cider for unique ciders and fun tasting flights.

The 5th Street Market good place to shop for up-scale gifts and even more delicious things to eat.

Voodoo Doughnuts: Try the hilarious and irreverently named goodies for an ideal afternoon treat.

Hendricks Park: A shady rhododendron garden that offers plenty of quiet places to sit and have a snack.
